POSTKARTE.

Fritton Lake, one of the most beautiful of the Broads, is landlocked, and can only be reached by road. The nearest station is St. Olaves, from which it is a pretty walk of about twenty minutes to Fritton Hall, at which boats and refreshments can be obtained. The lake is some three miles long and very deep, in places 18 or 20 feet.

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)

Dear E

will come & see

you on Sunday as I have just about forgot what you look like! I shall go & meet with you & go as far as Dunbar but shall not stay there as I am very anxious to come & see you & think we should ourselves the other I shall

 hope you are quite well as usual & I am very sorry to day & I am very sorry to hear of the death of the old man
